

[00:00:00.000 --> 00:00:07.680] - Yeah, that's great. That's a great idea. So usually, I'm going to tell you a little bit more
[00:00:07.680 --> 00:00:14.800] of what we're going to do today soon, but usually I start these interviews kind of like by asking,
[00:00:14.800 --> 00:00:20.000] what do you think this research is about? Like, what do you think we're doing here?
[00:00:20.000 --> 00:00:27.760] - So what I understood from like the email I got and like what I understood like online
[00:00:27.760 --> 00:00:37.600] when I registered was it was to focus on like, what are we focusing on when we're looking at
[00:00:37.600 --> 00:00:42.560] TikTok videos? Like, are we staring at the captions? Are we staring at people's faces?
[00:00:42.560 --> 00:00:49.520] Are we staring at stuff like that? And probably how long it takes before we roll to another
[00:00:49.520 --> 00:00:54.720] video, depending on what we see, I guess. That's what I'm guessing. That's what I'm guessing.
[00:00:54.720 --> 00:01:01.360] - And then do you have an idea of what do you usually look into? Like what type of videos and [00:01:01.360 --> 00:01:08.640] TikTok videos like get you interested?
- Yeah, I think I'm pretty aware, but I think
[00:01:08.640 --> 00:01:15.920] you guys probably know more than I do after watching like all my recordings. So yeah,
[00:01:15.920 --> 00:01:19.520] I could probably be like, oh, I like lifestyle. I like this. I like that, whatever. But you guys
[00:01:19.520 --> 00:01:25.040] would probably be like, no, you're not like that at all. So yeah.
- Yeah, that's true. That makes
[00:01:25.040 --> 00:01:33.680] sense. So you said that in your journal that you used your, like you had TikTok and then you
[00:01:33.680 --> 00:01:40.080] deleted it. Like when do you, do you still, do you have a TikTok account now or you made it only for
[00:01:40.080 --> 00:01:45.280] this research? Like just to understand your relationship with TikTok or social media in [00:01:45.280 --> 00:01:51.680] general?
- So I actually struggle with social media a lot, like especially during the pandemic,
[00:01:51.680 --> 00:01:58.240] like I'm, it was, I would argue I had an addiction to a point where I would stay up until like 6am
[00:01:58.240 --> 00:02:03.920] watching TikToks and then I would nap and then I would go to hool or go to work or whatever.
[00:02:03.920 --> 00:02:09.760] So it's been, I would delete it because it was a problem. And then I would re-install it when I
[00:02:09.760 --> 00:02:16.880] was like, oh, I can control the problem. But then obviously I couldn't. So then I moved out
[00:02:16.880 --> 00:02:22.880] and then I had no choice but to like ignore TikTok completely. So I had it uninstalled for a bit and
[00:02:22.880 --> 00:02:28.560] then I did re-install it around the same time that you guys started the research. So yeah.
[00:02:28.560 --> 00:02:34.720] - Okay, okay. Moved out from...
- From my parents' place to my own apartment.
